WORKING TOGETHER AS ONE

As part of the "All Things New" program we have been assigned the title of Our Lady of the Lakes Parish. We are adapting this title "Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Community", as our Area Catholic Community (ACC) name.

Our churches have achieved the majority of the goals we set out for ourselves which are briefly:

1. Good communication through bulletins, website and Facebook.
2. A working relationship between groups and ministries.
3. Continuation of a shared Faith Formation program.
4. Responsible stewardship.
5. Vibrant and active sacramental life with high Mass attendance.
6. Cooperation among the three churches with a central office and staff.

The diocesan goal of a merger into One Parish has been partly achieved and is on hold for the moment. A formal legal merger of our three corporations into one is not necessary in order to work towards common goals.

We are united in one faith and one desire to serve and worship Jesus Christ, to preserve our sacred places, and to be a living symbol of Christian charity to our neighbors.

God's Peace!

Suppose you were going to attack a city!

What does the Bible say you should do first? It says you should first offer the city terms of peace! That would be a good idea when you are going to "attack" anybody. First - try for peace.

Are you the kind who "attacks" often? Or are you the kind who often gets "attacked"? Whichever you are, try offering peace first. When you get soooooo furious at someone, stop before you attack and think about what you could do to make peace and be friends instead. And when someone attacks you, instead of hitting back, surprise them and try being friends! If it works, you'll always be a winner. read Deuteronomy 20:10.

Why do Catholics Care About the Saints?

Question: Why do Catholics care about saints?

Answer: One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in "the communion of saints." The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death.

And so from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us.

When we think of the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support.

Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness. ©LPi
